Dear Program Director:

Thank you for forwarding the materials required to maintain your charitable registration in the State of Maryland. The information received is in proper order, and your registration has been renewed.

Please retain this letter for your files, as it certifies that your registration is current with the Office of the Secretary of State until 12/31/2006. At that time, your next financial report and the appropriate renewal information and fee should be filed with our office.

Your registration number is 17090. Please include your registration number in all communications with this office.

If you have any questions, please contact the Charities and Legal Services Division at (410)974-5534.

Sincerely Yours,
